

FILTHY GORGEOUS TEMPERATURE STILL RISING

FILTHY GORGEOUS, a promotion run by SCOTT MARTIN and JAMIE GITTINS, are into their second Ibiza season, moving up from their original West End bar home, Hush, to hosting the Coco Loco room at Privilege on Wednesdays during Mauro Picotto's MEGANITE. The more intimate Coco space (though it's still huge, being the second area of what is, after all, the largest discotheque on Earth) is well suited to FG's gritty electrofied dirty beats and underground pieces. Scott and Jamie are regularly joined by DJs Kaleb and Mistress De Funk, while there will be two special nights, with HAT CLUB from the UK co-hosting on 30 August. The theme for that party will be, unsurprisingly, hats... "if you don't wear one, ya not coming in", they claim. On 6 September TECHNIQUE, from Leeds, add a touch of northern England club flavouring.
